Agenda item:
The Bond Steering Committee will report on the results of the community bond study process and present the recommendation for a bond referendum.

Suggested motion:

Funding sources/clarification:
The goal of the process was to involve members of the Cypress-Fairbanks community in evaluating the need for, and the scope of, a bond issue. The process included a fifty-three member steering committee that involved parents, staff members, and business/community members who resided in Cypress-Fairbanks ISD. The steering committee was divided into four subcommittees: Student Growth, Instructional/Support Facilities, Instructional Technology, and Information/Education.
