

HOSTED BY CYPRESS-FAIRBANKS ISD

GUIDANCE & COUNSELING

OCTOBER 6, 2010

AT THE BERRY CENTER

REPRESENTATIVE SIGN-IN

All high school counselors participate to help make the evening a success. Pictured is Susan Calda, school counselor from Cypress Springs High School, who greeted college representatives as they arrived to set up for the night.

BEFORE THE DOORS OPENED

Over 300 College Representatives representing 200 colleges set up their assigned tables at the Berry Center in preparation for a busy night with potential students.

WELCOME TO COLLEGE NIGHT

Students and parents eagerly entered the district's 16th annual College Night Event which is open to juniors and seniors.

WHO, WHERE, AND WHICH WAY?

Alice Wimberly, counselor at Fiest Elementary, directs Kelsi Media, student at Cypress Falls, and her mom to the arena and conference area displays.

REPRESENTATIVES READY WITH RESOURCES

The representative from Tufts University, located in Massachusetts, shows off her campus materials.

INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS AND PARENTS

Nicole Sernec, from Jersey Village High School, engaged in conversation with the representative from Stephen F. Austin. There were 86 in-state colleges in attendance.

COLLEGE & CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Dale Chapman from Cy-Fair High School looks over options for his future with his mother.

IN THE ARENA AT THE BERRY CENTER

Heyden Jones, from Langham Creek High School, visits with the representative from the University of Arkansas. There were 114 out-of-state colleges represented.

TUITION COST & ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Cecilia Cisar, of Cypress Ranch High School, visits with Betty Johnson from Harvey Mudd College, located in Claremont, California.

INFORMATION TO TAKE HOME AND STUDY

Julianne Garrett, from CyFair High School, looks over resource materials handed out during the evening.

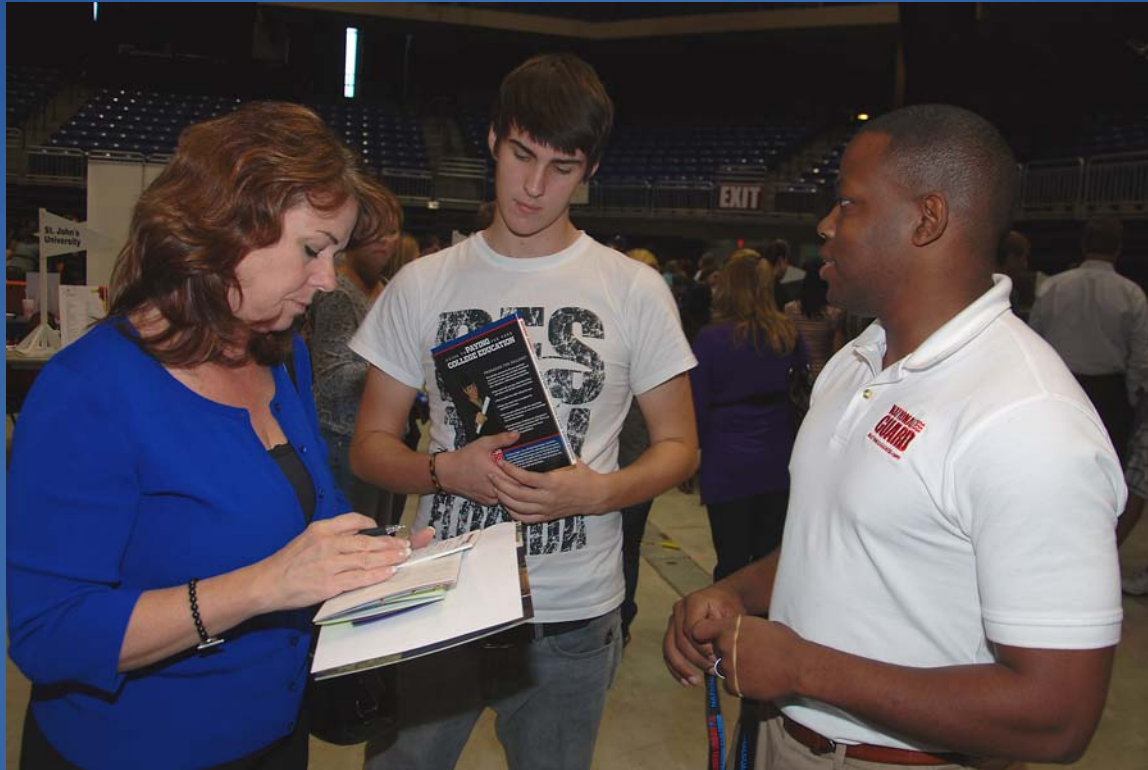

MILITARY OPPORTUNITIES

Justin Clisham, of Cypress Woods, considers the Marines as a choice.

ACADEMY ADMISSION

Edgar Garcia, Air Force ROTC student from Cypress Lakes High School, talks to Cadet Training Officer Carlos Traveria, with Texas A & M Maritime Academy.

DECISION-MAKING FOR THE FUTURE

Zachary Scott, from Cypress-Woods, with mother, Paula Scott takes notes.

LARGE GROUP PRESENTATION

Students heard about admission requirements for The University of Texas during one of the many different college presentations that were held during the evening.

ANOTHER LARGE GROUP PRESENTATION

Tom Carrizal, from Texas A & M University, answered questions from students and parents.

LONE STAR COLLEGE DANCE TEAM

Members of the Lone Star College Dance Team performed for students and parents.

TEXAS NATIONAL GUARD DISPLAY

Carlos Pinto, from Cypress Falls High School, fills out a request for more information from the Texas National Guard.

MOBILE GO UNIT DISPLAY

A Lone Star College representative greeted parents before they entered the Mobile-Go Unit set up outside the Berry Center.

INSIDE THE MOBILE GO UNIT

This mobile unit provides access to the Lone Star College application and assessment information.

CAREER TOOLS ONLINE

Emily Joyce, from Cypress Ranch High School, is encouraged to check out online information by Mandy Cancino, representative from MyComputerCareer.com .

ATTENDANCE

Over 6600 parents and students took advantage of the opportunity to visit with college representatives from across the United States, including Hawaii.

THANKS TO ALL WHO HELPED

Kristy Chavis & Sandra Grubbs, counselors from Cy Springs and Jersey Village, were just two of the many district staff members that worked to be sure the night went smoothly.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thank you to:

The Berry Staff for their support in working collaboratively with Guidance & Counseling to organize this event

Gary Durrenberger, District Photographer, for photo contributions for this presentation