

Testing Information

SAT

www.collegeboard.com – Register for the SAT, look up future test dates, prepare for the test with official practice questions, send test scores to schools, do research on more than 3800 colleges, and learn about financial aid. All students planning to attend a four-year college should take the SAT during their junior and early senior years. Students may take the SAT, the ACT, or both.

ACT

www.actstudent.org - Register for the ACT, look up future test dates, take practice tests, send test scores to schools, and do research on colleges and financial aid. The ACT is accepted at most colleges and universities across the nation, and students planning to attend a four-year college should take the ACT during their junior and early senior years. Students may take the SAT, the ACT, or both.

THEA

www.thea.nesinc.com – The THEA is required by public two-year and four-year colleges in Texas, including community colleges, for students who are not exempt from the test based on their TAKS, SAT, or ACT scores.

To determine if you are exempt from the THEA, go to http://wwwtemp.lonestar.edu/departments/advising/testingcenters_placementscores.pdf or contact the college you plan to attend.

The Compass, Asset, Quick THEA, or Accuplacer tests, offered on college campuses regularly, can be used as alternative tests for the regular THEA. Click here <http://wwwtemp.lonestar.edu/placement-testing.htm> for detailed descriptions of each college placement testing option.

TAKS

http://www.tea.state.tx.us/index3.aspx?id=3839&menu_id3=793 – Visit this site to download released versions of the TAKS test for study and practice of the test for all grade levels.
