Qualifications: The First Freedom Student Competition is a national essay contest, offering high-school students an opportunity to compete for $2500 awards, as they examine religious freedom, its history, current importance, and relevance in their lives. The competition is open to students in the United States and U.S. territories, and to American schools and American home-schooled students worldwide. We invite 9th - 12th grade students at all levels of academic placement to participate.

Other Documents Needed: To be eligible, students must request competition sponsorship from their Social Studies or English department teacher (which also includes social sciences, business law, speech, forensics/debate, theology, etc.). If not taking Social Studies and English department classes this semester, students may request sponsorship from a former or upcoming Social Studies or English department teacher. Guidance counselors should direct students to their Social Studies and English department teachers for sponsorship.

GPA: Not specified

Gender: Either

Ethnicity: Any
