Qualifications: The Navy Reserve Officer Training Corps (NROTC) scholarship season for students starting college in 2011 is underway. Several scholarships will be awarded to highly qualified students. The "Immediate Selection Reservation" program aid is providing top students another option to attend a four-year university. There is no obligation on the part of the student by applying for this scholarship. The NROTC scholarship is a four-year scholarship worth up to $180,000 covering full tuition, books, fees, uniforms and a monthly stipend of $250.00. After college, the student enters the Navy as a commissioned officer in occupations such as Engineering, Pilot, Naval Flight Officer, or Surface Warfare Officer. The application process for the NROTC scholarship has already begun and now is the time for juniors to start their application.

Minimum requirements for submission of an application are:

- Top 10% of high school class, or
- ACT: 21 Math, 22 English, or
- SAT: 520 Math, 530 Verbal
- U.S. Citizens
- 17 years old by September 1st and younger than 23 on June 30th of first year of college (exceptions for prior military service)
