Qualifications:

Ponder Minority Scholarship: The primary qualifications are being a minority, academic achievement, and financial need (you must fill out the FAFSA). This renewable scholarship provides up to $5,000 per year.

Trulaske Scholars: Robert J. Trulaske (pronounced: "true-lask"), Sr. Scholarships in Business are awarded to students pursuing degrees from the MU College of Business. This scholarship assists very good students who do not meet the qualifications for Bright Flight or other excellence-based scholarship programs such as the Curator, Excellence and Brooks Scholarships.

The scholarship provides $6,675 per year and is renewable for a maximum of four years (eight semesters). First preference for selection of recipients is given to children of full-time active employees of True Manufacturing Company and other directly related companies.

Additional preference is also given to students demonstrating financial need (you must fill out the FAFSA) and students graduating in the upper two-thirds but outside the top 10 percent of their high school class. Special emphasis is placed on students who have exhibited business interests through work experience and/or other related activities. Applicants should also show evidence of leadership abilities and other activities.

Sam Walton Scholarships in Business: Sam M. Walton Scholarships in Business are awarded to incoming freshmen and current college students majoring in economics, finance, international business, management, or marketing at the MU College of Business. Accountancy majors are not eligible for the Walton Scholarship.

The primary qualifications are academic achievement and financial need (you must fill out the FAFSA). Additional consideration is given to an expressed interest in retailing. Recipients must:

- progress toward a business degree
- work part-time (10-12 hours per week) in retailing
- participate in Walton Scholar activities while attending MU

This renewable scholarship provides $6,675 per year prior to receiving the BS BA degree.
