Graduation: Thursday, May 30th

Notes:

1. High schools must follow the assigned bell schedule so high school students and teachers can attend/teach classes on other campuses.
2. Breakfast and lunch will be served each day through Friday, May 31.
3. Principals are responsible for scheduling teachers who travel between campuses.
4. Senior exams will be May 21-May 24 and grades 9-11 exams will be May 28-May 31. There is NO early release during exams.
5. If a student is taking a class at another campus, prior arrangements should be made to get the final exam to the home campus and determine who will proctor the final exam. Students should not drive between campuses to complete final exams. Courses with performance-based or project-based exams may need to be administered in advanced.
6. PALs shuttles will run through May 20 for seniors and May 24 for underclassmen.
7. CTE (Culinary and Welding) shuttles will run through May 20 for seniors and May 24 for underclassmen. Since some sections only include seniors, campuses must notify transportation if there are no underclassmen in the section to shuttle.
8. AFJROTC shuttles will run through May 20 for seniors and May 24 for underclassmen.

The last day for seniors to ride the shuttle is dependent on the home campus exam schedule.

9. NAC shuttles will depart at their regularly scheduled times through Friday, May 31.
10. Brautigam and Carlton Shuttles will run the regular schedule through Friday, May 31.
