

Lowery Lariat

Early Edition December 2022

Lately, the world has given us so many reminders of the importance of time with our loved ones. Time is a valuable gift. It can never be replaced. My grandmother always told me that we spend time with the things that are most important to us.

The Holiday season is filled with extra... extra errands, a full calendar, additional calories, added expenses and sometimes more stress. It's a time we look forward to, and for me, a time I sometimes take for granted. Each year I tell myself not to allow the "extra" to cause stress and most years, I don't listen to myself. This year, I plan to slow down. This year, my goal for myself and my family is to be in the moment, enjoy having my house full, extra dishes to wash and more people to play games. This year I am committed to sitting, watching movies and reading books over and over with my granddaughter and sharing stories with my husband, adult children and their significant others. This year, my gift is the one I love the most... time.

Happiest Holidays to you and your family. Thank you for sharing your loved ones with us today and every day.
