Directions: Your counselor would like for your letter of recommendation to be an accurate reflection of your history and abilities. Therefore, it is important that you answer all questions in detail. Attach a typed copy of your answers.

1. What leadership activities and/or organizations have you been involved with in school? Describe your responsibilities and activities related to these activities that are meaningful to you.
2. What do you consider your most important activities outside of school, including employment, community service, etc.? Describe responsibilities, the number of years of your involvement, and the amount of time you spent on the activity weekly. Explain why this activity was significant to you.
3. What honors or awards have you received during high school or summer institutes and workshops? If it is outside of school, be sure to name the organization giving the award. (You may attach a computer-generated list.)
4. Share a favorite quote and explain why it is your favorite. Or, share a motto by which you try to live.
5. Who or what is the biggest influence in your life and why?
6. What are one or two accomplishments up to this point in your life that have given you the greatest satisfaction or sense of pride?

7. List at least Five adjectives that you feel best describe yourself. After each adjective briefly give an explanation or experience that demonstrates your choice.
8. What are your principal strengths? Explain.
9. What are your areas for improvement? Explain.
10. Share a specific situation in which you were challenged, and how you responded to the challenge.
11. Explain any family situations or other obstacles that have influenced or affected your high school career.
12. What is your career choice and future goals?
13. What is the most important thing that you want the college to know about you? Elaborate.
14. Include any other information that you would like to share.

What are the first two words you would use to describe your son/daughter? Why?

List one or two of your child's significant qualities/characteristics; briefly describe incidents/events/situations which illustrate these strengths.

Is there an obstacle that your child has overcome or is currently dealing with?

Give any other information about your child that you would like to share.
