BEHAVIOR INCENTIVE PROGRAM: SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS

Fall and Spring Semester Exam Exemption All students in grades 9-12 shall have the opportunity to earn exemptions from fall and spring semester exams. Freshmen shall be allowed one exemption per semester; sophomores, two exemptions per semester; juniors, three exemptions per semester; and seniors, four exemptions during the fall semester and seven exemptions during the spring semester.

These exemptions shall be based on conduct and grades for each semester. A student shall be exempt from an examination when they have a grade of A (90-100) or B (80-89) a course for the semester. Even when a student has earned an exemption, they may elect to take the exam. If a student chooses to exempt an exam, they may still attend school. If the student chooses not to attend school, they will be counted as absent. This absence will be reflected on the student's report card.

No student shall be exempt from exams while owing fees or costs of textbooks. If a student is suspended (out of school) or assigned to a DAEP for any number of days, they shall lose eligibility for exemptions during that semester. A student receiving a grade of "U" (Unsatisfactory) for conduct shall lose eligibility for exemptions; however, a student shall not receive a "U" unless the teacher has referred that student to the assistant principal's office for misconduct.

Exemptions shall be determined prior to the calculation of final grades. When a student's grade falls below the qualifying threshold, the teacher shall notify the counselor and the student that his or her exemption has been revoked. When an exemption has been revoked, the student shall not be allowed to acquire a different exemption after the deadline.
