Title: Early Childhood Education (ECE) scholarships

Deadline: varies

Award Amount: varies

Program Description/History:

Discover Early Childhood EDU is a complete resource helping future teachers plan and create their teaching career path.

Our goal is to help you not only choose the right career option, but to also prepare you for success and becoming an influential teacher with some of the best resources.

Early childhood education (ECE) scholarships can be found nearly anywhere, from your local grocer to international professional associations. You will find teaching scholarships specifically for men, women, minorities, and disabled individuals.

You will find potentially hundreds or thousands of early childhood education degree scholarships. Some of these scholarships will be dedicated to ECE specifically; whereas, others will be dedicated to future teachers in general. Be sure to look at all scholarships for education majors no matter whether the scholarship is for college and university expenses, licensures, or for conferences. Every scholarship will help provide you with a brighter future and to help you become a better teacher.

Eligibility:

The majority of scholarships are for graduating high school seniors or those who have completed their GED and are about to begin their first year of higher learning. It is also possible to find scholarships dedicated to graduate programs, licensure programs, and continuing education. However, there are significantly fewer of these scholarships.
