

Title: Christian Studies Scholarship

Deadline: July 1, 2019

Award Amount: $500 - $1,000

Program Description:

At Simmons and Fletcher, P.C, we value spiritual education as an important part of the moral well-being for college students. As Christian trial lawyers, we are excited to continue our annual $1,000 Christian Studies Scholarship. We will also award a second-prize scholarship of $500 to the runner up. We know how difficult the financial burden can be for students and their families, and we are so excited to help our essay winners.

Website/Application: <https://www.simmonsandfletcher.com/christian-studies-scholarship/>

Eligibility Requirements:

In order to apply and qualify for the Christian Studies Scholarship, an applicant must:

- Be a lawful U.S. permanent resident or U.S. citizen
- Enrolled in, accepted to or plan to attend a Christian college or university
- Be a participant in volunteer or community work
- Submit a completed application
- Submit a completed required essay
- Applicants must not have received same scholarship in previous year

Essay Requirements

Applicants should submit a typed, double-spaced essay that is in legible font of 12-point size. The essay should discuss, in detail, how Christian education and Christian business leaders help to enhance the moral fibers of the United States. The essay should also include a description of how a Christian education has or/and will benefit the applicant, and how a Christian education will help the applicant to be a future leader among their peers.

The essay should be no less than 1,000 words in length.