

CFISD Fashion Design I

Scope and Sequence

Course Description:

This course emphasizes careers in fashion which span all aspects of the textile and apparel industries. Students interested will develop an understanding of the industry by participation in fashion, textile, and apparel projects, as well as exposure to laws governing the industry, skills related to commercial care of clothing, safety regulations, and general knowledge and skills leading to success in the Arts, Audio/Video Technology, and Communications career cluster. (1 credit)

- ◆ Grades 10 – 12
- ◆ Lab supplies or fee may be required.

TEKS

Cluster: Arts, A/V Technology, and Communications

Endorsement: Business & Industry

- Meets advanced course requirement (Y/N): N
- Meets foundation requirement for math, science, fine arts, English, LOTE (Y/N-area): N

Industry Certification/Credentials: n/a

Instructional Units	Pacing
1 st Semester Career preparation Apparel and fashion The business of fashion Sewing techniques	Grading Period 1 Grading Period 2
2 nd Semester Designs apparel using principles of effective designs Factors influencing apparel industry Proper care & maintenance practices for apparel Commercial care of clothing Sewing projects Factors that impact consumer purchasing of fashion/accessories Decision Making: use of technology, textiles, apparel Sewing projects	Grading Period 3 Grading Period 4

Primary Instructional Materials: Apparel: Design, Textiles, and Construction, Goodheart Willcox, ISBN: 9781683112228

