

Sociology

Scope and Sequence 2019-2020

Course Description: Sociology is designed for students who are interested in enhancing their understanding of themselves and the society in which they live. The course deals with typical situations which people meet in their daily lives. Institutions, which are found in all societies, are studied, and emphasis is placed on the relationships people have within them. Study is also made of societal problems, including such topics as growing up, divorce, current events, etc.

The length of each unit is a specific number of days, but it is understood that there is a range of +/- a day. The purpose of the flexibility is meant to allow teachers the opportunity to plan for the needs of their students and to accommodate re-teaching or review when necessary. If pre-assessment indicates student mastery could be obtained in a fewer number of days, the additional time could be used for extension or carried into the next unit.
