

Title: Terry Foundation Scholarships-Texas Woman's University

Program:

The Terry Foundation provides four-year scholarships for Texas resident students attending TWU. Terry scholars are selected from a highly competitive applicant pool of incoming freshman who demonstrate exceptional leadership, character, and scholastic ability.

The scholarship covers tuition, fees, books, on-campus room and board and miscellaneous expenses. TWU will be bringing in their second cohort of Terry Recipients to the TWU campus for Fall 2016!

Who Can Apply?

To be considered for the Terry Foundation Scholarship at The University of Texas at Austin you must: •Begin an ApplyTexas Application and select UT Austin as your target university. You must begin the Admission Section of the application before you are given access to the Scholarship Section.

- Complete and save the Admission Section. Doing so, leads you directly into the Scholarship Section, which will allow the University to also consider you for other available scholarships. Much of your scholarship information is directly tied to the Admission Section, so it is very important that you save your admission information before you begin the Scholarship Section.

- Select the Terry Foundation Scholarship from the list of available scholarships. You will be prompted to answer several scholarship and university specific questions to apply for the Terry Foundation Scholarship.

- Complete and SUBMIT your ApplyTexas application, including all required essays NO LATER THAN December 1.

- Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by March 15. (Application available January 1.) The FAFSA application will determine your eligibility for federal grants and is REQUIRED for all Terry Foundation Candidates and Finalists.
