

11th Grade Pacing Guide

Week of April 6-10

Course	By the end of this week, students should have completed:	K-Level Extensions
English III	Analyzing Genre Connections Complete : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Remembering and Reflecting on the Holocaust</li> <li>• Anticipating the Future through Texts: Visions</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Analyzing Genre Connections In this lesson, you were asked, “how do genre and point of view contribute to the power of Holocaust literature?”</li> <li>• Write a journal entry in which you record your thoughts, actions or observations regarding this current pandemic. Then rewrite it as a poem, an op-ed, or draw an editorial cartoon. Consider switching the point of view.</li> </ul>
Physics	Sound Waves	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Choose any two of the wave interactions introduced in this lesson and discuss whether (or under what circumstances) is it useful (or it is detrimental) to our lives.</li> <li>• Research surface waves, then create a triple bubble Venn Diagram to compare and contrast transverse, longitudinal, and surface waves</li> </ul>
Environmental Science	Soil and Agriculture
Earth and Space Science	Ocean Water	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Can groundwater become surface water? If so, how?</li> <li>• What factors limit water supply to some countries?</li> </ul>

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Why is potable water such a rare resource in many countries?</li> <li>• How might people in these regions adapt to such conditions?</li> </ul>
US History	Extending Civil Rights; Johnson's Great Society; The Warren Court	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Compare the impact of Johnson's Great Society to the impact of Roosevelt's New Deal during the Depression.</li> <li>• What was the long-term impact of the Warren Court on America (select one or two Supreme Court cases to justify your answer).</li> <li>• Compare the extended Civil Rights movements with those of today. What is different in the 21st century than that of the 1970s?</li> </ul>
Algebra II	Exponential and Logarithmic Functions: Part 2 through "Solving Logarithmic Equations using Technology"	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• See Algebra II Extension on the 11th grade Learning from Home page</li> </ul>
Algebraic Reasoning	Complete through Square Root Equations, and Cubic Equations
MMA	Mathematical Modeling in Personal Finance: Part 1 through Amortization	