

December 5, 2011

The Cy-Fair Educational Foundation (CFEF) will host the 24-team Cypress Hoops Invitational Dec. 8-10 to continue its goal of creating a successful high school basketball tournament that engages the entire community. North Cypress Sports Medicine Center will underwrite the event for the second year.

Profits from the tournament will benefit the CFEF "Donate to Educate" program, which provides college scholarships for district students as well as staff development grants to CFISD for innovative and creative teacher training.

In addition to all the CFISD high schools, the following out-of-district boys' basketball teams will compete in the invitational:

- Brazoswood High School, Beaumont Ozen High School, Lamar High School, Willis High School, Nimitz High School, Dekaney High School, Spring High School, Klein High School, Klein Collins High School, Klein Forest High School, Katy High School, Morton Ranch High School, Atascosita High School, and Pasadena High School.

Games will be held at the Berry Center (8877 Barker Cypress Road), Cypress Lakes High School (5750 Greenhouse Road), Cypress Ranch High School (10700 Fry Road) and Langham Creek High School (17610 FM 529).

Tickets can be purchased at the Berry Center during normal business hours. Ticket prices are:

- $20 for a 3-day tournament pass;
- $3 for an adult single game ticket; and
- $2 for a student single game ticket.

For more information about specific game times and locations, visit the Berry Center website at www.berrycenter.net.