

Title:                   The Haraldson Foundation Scholarship

Deadline:           Dec. 1, 2021

Award Amount:   Up to $5K per semester ($40K overall)

Program Description/History:

Ms. Beulah Mae Haraldson loved her home state of Texas, as well as one of its major universities, The University of Texas. Her vision was to help the best and brightest students within Texas, stay in Texas and go to one of the nations leading academic institutions.

The Haraldson Foundation encourages young adults to become the future leaders for the state of Texas, by providing academic scholarships for study at the University of Texas.

Haraldson's desire was to see that young Texans, continue their higher education in Texas. She believed that her home state was losing its top talent and leadership to other states because of scholarships. She dreamed of enticing and encouraging outstanding students to choose the best Texas schools and become the future leaders of this state. The Haraldson Foundation was founded with this vision and provides need-based, endowed scholarships for the future leaders for her beloved Texas.
