

Title: Minority Cosmetic Science Scholarship

Deadline: April 15, 2024

Award Amount: $5,000

The beauty line Curly Hair Crisis puts a focus on supporting minorities in the field of cosmetic science and wants to encourage the next generation to pursue their goals and find solutions to unique cosmetic problems.

There are many ways to contribute to the skin, hair, and nail cosmetic field, such as research related to fields of chemistry, biochemistry, herbalism, botany, anthropology, microbiology, and more. The Minority Cosmetic Science Scholarship seeks to encourage minorities to get more involved with this field and contribute to the world of cosmetic science.

Website/Application: <https://bold.org/scholarships/minority-cosmetic-science-scholarship/>

Eligibility/Requirements:

Education Level: High school or undergraduate

Race/Ethnicity: BIPOC

Career Field: Cosmetic science or natural cosmetology

BIPOC high school and undergraduate students are eligible to apply if they are pursuing a career in natural cosmetology or cosmetic science via majors such as cosmetology, anthropology, botany, chemistry, biochemistry, herbalism, microbiology, and more.

To apply, write about yourself and how you plan to make an impact on the hair, skin, and nail industry.

ESSAY TOPIC

Tell us about yourself and how you plan to impact the hair, skin, and nail industry through your career. 400–600 words